

The Kreisau Project Letter of Agreement—Classroom Study Use of Two Scripts

This agreement is made on _____, (date) by and between Susan L. Smith (the “Owner”) and the classroom teacher named below (the “Classroom Teacher.”)

The Classroom Teacher named below has requested access to the script of “A Journey to Kreisau” and/or “Karski” (each, a “Work” and collectively, the “Works”). The Owner, having all right, title and interest in the Works, will allow the requested scripts to be made available to the Classroom Teacher for classroom study use in the 2019-2020 academic year, pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

The parties agree as follows:

- (1) No fee will be charged by the Owner for the classroom study use of the Works.
- (2) The Classroom Teacher agrees he/she will not make or permit to be made any addition, omission, and/or alteration to the Works (including title, dialogue, and stage directions) without the prior written consent of the Owner. Any derivative work made which is acceptable to the Owner shall be the property of the Owner, and the creator of the derivative work will transfer all copyrights to the Owner in exchange for access to the Works. If a derivative work is not acceptable to the Owner, no permission is granted for its use.
- (3) This agreement letter does not include permission to forward via email or otherwise electronically send out the script(s). The classroom teacher may print the script and then make a photocopy for each student who will be studying either or both scripts.
- (4) This agreement letter relates to use of the Works for classroom study only. The Classroom Teacher understands that any live performances require separate permission from the Owner.

The undersigned agree to the terms of this Agreement:

Susan L. Smith,
as owner of the copyrights of Marc P. Smith, playwright.
